The character I chose to write about today is MacDuff. First off, I think that MacDuff is a very impulsive character. The reason I think that MacDuff is impulsive, is because he did not think about the consequences his family would face when he left to England to find Malcolm. Secondly, I think that MacDuff is very loyal to his country and wanted the best for the people. Even though his family had to pay the price for what MacDuff did, which was to go find Malcolm. He went for a reason, and the only reason he went was because he was suspicious that Macbeth was the one who killed King Duncan so he could become king. Also, since Macbeth has become the ruler of Scotland, many men has died because Macbeth did not trust them or because Macbeth simply had his own personal feud. Last of all, I think that MacDuff is revengeful, for he got his revenge on Macbeth doing what Macbeth did to his family which was killing him. MacDuff in the film was sad when he first learned the news. He soon realized that sadness was not going to bring them back so his sadness turned into anger which caused him to get even with Macbeth.
