

3 Written questions

- 1. wealth as evidenced by sumptuous living opulence ✓

- 2. a person responsible for receiving payments for goods and services (as in a shop or restaurant)

cashier ✓

- 3. any plant disease resulting in withering without rotting blight ✓

3 Matching questions

- 1. a aversion ✓

a the act of turning yourself (or your gaze) away

- 2. c exploit ✓

b an accommodation in which both sides make concessions

- 3. b compromise ✓

c use or manipulate to one's advantage

2 Multiple choice questions

- 1. move unsteadily, with a rocking motion

- a. cryptic
- b. teeter ✓
- c. cashier
- d. blight

10/10

- 2. the quality of unselfish concern for the welfare of others

- a. aversion
- b. altruism ✓
- c. blight
- d. exploit

EE!

2 True/False questions

- 1. cryptic → having a puzzling terseness

True ✓ False

- 2. enhance → increase

True ✓ False

3 Written questions

1. virtuoso

Someone who is dazzlingly skilled in any field ✓

2. a notice of someone's death

Obituary ✓

3. scrutinize

to examine very closely ✓

10/10

3 Matching questions

1. b a shelter from danger or hardship ✓

a nurture

2. c marked by great carelessness ✓

b refuge

3. a provide with nourishment ✓

c haphazard

EEF

2 Multiple choice questions

1. laud

- a. to examine very closely
- b. provide with nourishment
- c. praise, glorify, or honor ✓
- d. marked by great carelessness

2. furrow

- a. someone who is dazzlingly skilled in any field
- b. a notice of someone's death
- c. a long shallow trench in the ground (especially one made by a plow) ✓
- d. a shelter from danger or hardship

2 True/False questions

1. changeable; mercurial; flighty: a volatile disposition. → laud ✓

True False

2. an armed adversary (especially a member of an opposing military force) → volatile ✓

True False