

that he was trying to steal the pocketbook. He speaks in a whisper and feels bad.
Thoughts: Do we know what he's thinking? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> We know that Roger is thinking about his Blue Suede Shoes and how he could have gotten them without stealing. He is thinking about the trouble he has put himself into. 	What does this show us about him? "I want a pair of blue suede shoes." (pg.197) "You gonna take me to jail?" (pg.197)
Physical Appearance/Body Language <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Roger was wearing a Blue-Jeaned Sitter. He has a dirty face, which hasn't been cleaned. 	What does this show us about him? "The large woman simply turned around and kicked him right square in his blue—jeaned sitter." (pg.195) "Your face is dirty. I got a great mind to wash your face for you." (pg.198)
List 3 traits describing Roger: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sneaky Desperate Guilty 	"I want a pair of blue suede shoes." (pg.197) "Well, you didn't have to snatch my pocketbook to get some suede shoes." (pg.197)

Some great inferences along with clear evidence to support. Well done!

